

SAINIK SCHOOL EAST SIANG, NIGLOK
SCHOOL CIRCULAR NUMBER C 03 DATED 24 JANUARY 2024: MORNING ASSEMBLY

1. Well begun is half done. Morning Assembly is an important place of the school. A properly planned Assembly programme will enrich the knowledge of the Cadets and will encourage their social and moral development. The assembly should be planned with clean objective in mind to:-

- (a) Begin the day with an alert mind, meaningful thoughts and definite focus.
- (b) Enhance awareness of the Cadets about different issues through the activities of the assembly.
- (c) Have an interactive session with the Teachers who motivate and inspire the Cadets to excel in their performance in academic and co-curricular activities.
- (d) Inform the Cadets about the important happenings in the country, world and remind them of the great works done by the Intellectuals and Pioneers.
- (e) Assembly is compulsory for all Cadets, Teachers, Librarian, Lab Assistants, and everyone must participate in the Assembly with dignity, seriousness and liveliness. All to present before commencement of the Assembly, No one should join in between when it is in progress to maintain the sanctity and the purpose. Teachers are face of the school; Cadets grow by taking teachers as their role model. Hence all are to maintain highest standards in conducting Morning Assembly on daily basis at earmarked location.
- (f) That a House must be assigned to conduct assembly for a day on rotation and the House Master must plan conducting of the assembly well in advance and the Monitors will ensure to make queues of Cadets, marking attendance during assembly, checking of Cadets turnout and uniform, nails, hair cutting, shoe polish, teeth shining, cleanliness etc.
- (g) Maintain an Assembly Register by the Assembly In-Charge and the Register should be submitted to the AO/ Principal daily at 1200 Hours containing the details of activities conducted, Thought for the Day, Absentees, Late Commers, Address of the Day etc.
